IV. Old Business

a. Reports

i. SGA –

- Reached out to David Hay about Parking ticket proposal, he is looking it over.
- Demarion wants class cabinets to tackle what's next steps, wants SGA to head it, a document that can be shared with cabinets after elections, helping them find steps to take after their elections.

ii. SIP –

- Met with Lucas last week, rolling out column in Collegian getting the variety of perspectives.
- Meeting with Maria and Esther at counseling center with how to counsel minority students.

iii. SLB –

- Planning the JR Briggs workshop coming up next week.
- Regrouping and talking about roles and how the board can be more involved as a team.

iv. CCO –

- Caribbean Food Festival and changing way they can advertise and how they can handle the budgets.

V. New Business

a. Spring Semester Update –

- 3-fold point. Update coming soon. Starting on time, random breaks sprinkled throughout the semester, ending semester one week earlier than before.
- Sophia mentions how a dean said he would still assign assignments/tests on the days off, brings up a lot more concerns from Jonah about majors that are a lot harder.

b. Spending Money Discussion –

- Spending money is good, but you don't see the drainage account and don't see the current statements.
- Getting with each VP so you can see where your account stands.
- We have been spending a lot of money with ASC, so Sophia is going to be having a meeting with accounts Payable to see where we are and what it is that we have left.

c. Heather –

- Thinking recently about email situation with ASC. Can't share on things that the entire university may not agree. Sorry about not being able to have conversations where we disagree and the conversations that are uncomfortable. Want's to be able to talk through things beforehand.
- How can EC draft multicultural events that in a way can't tokenize students on campus? How can we have these conversations that aren't coming just from SIP or Intercultural Offices.
- Doesn't want us to feel censored.

d. Spontaneous Pancakes –
    - We do it, masked, and gloved. You can't stay and eat, but we are the only ones touching the pancakes.
    - Next step is to pick a day, that stays between us. Jonah suggest we do it towards the last two weeks of the semester.
    - Could possibly do something next week or the week of the 9th and the 13th . Do not reveal to anyone. Possibly doing it on November 9th at 9 pm.

e. Chick- Fil-A Night @ Soccer Game (Nov 4) –
    - Tentatively, depending on when Jack's event is. If it is on that day, we won't be able to help them.

VI. Open floor announcements

a. EC Retreat –
