

The Facilitator

Teacher Educators for Learning and Leading

This week at

Teacher Educators for Learning and Leading:

Teaching in 2007

A conversation with Dr. Carol Hill

“Beef and Bouquets”

Thursday, November 15
7:00 pm in Reasoner 214

Upcoming TELL Meeting Dates

Tuesday, February 5
Thursday, March 6

Membership Dues = $10

(Student teachers for this semester only pay $5.00)

Please pay your dues this week!

Remember, by paying your dues and attending three meetings you will receive a certificate to include in the professional development standard of your portfolio

PRESIDENT’S CORNER

Thanksgiving is right around the corner, and a tradition in my family is going around the table and stating what each person is thankful for. Over the past couple of years I have found that what I was thankful for as a child and what I’m grateful for now are too different things. Back then it was the week we off from school and the excitement of going shopping the next day for Christmas presents. I remember that I shared last Thanksgiving how thankful I was that my grandmother was still with us. We almost lost her over the summer. Life is full of gifts and blessings that God gives us everyday. I just wonder how many of us remember to praise the Father for all he has given us. Do we allow our busy lifestyles to get in the way of giving thanks? What do you thank God for? I thank Him for wanting me even after all the terrible things I have said and done to people who love me. All you have to do is ask for God’s blessings. He will surely answer your prayers. So while you are freaking out about all the papers, exams, and projects that are going to be due before and maybe even some after Thanksgiving just remember how blessed you are to receive an education. Don’t just thank God but make sure you thank the people in your lives that are rooting for you to succeed. Praise God! I want to wish each and everyone one of you a wonderful and happy Thanksgiving.

May the Lord bless you and protect you. May the Lord smile on you and be gracious to you. May the Lord show you his favor and give you his peace. Numbers 6:24-26

Tami Myers

President of TELL