

Statement of Financial Responsibility

Asbury College and the United States government require all international students to provide certification of adequate financial support. Students are expected to pay tuition, living expenses and fees at the beginning of each semester. Living expenses vary depending upon the student's individual arrangements. Tuition, fees and residence hall costs can be found in the College's current catalog or by contacting the Admissions Office. Additional expenses include books, transportation, health insurance and personal expenses. IMPORTANT: Give all monetary figures in United States dollars. All documents should be officially translated into English, if necessary. Please print.
