JUVENILE COLLECTION

The Kinlaw Library developed a Juvenile Collection for the purpose of supporting the studies and coursework of elementary education majors. Those books are located on the upper level of the library in the front of the building. A special focus of the collection are the Newbery and Caldecott award winners and honor books. In addition, the library strives to maintain examples of various periods and genres in the field of children’s literature.

A complete listing of Newbery and Caldecott award winning titles is available as a handout in the Reference Area.

JOURNALS & NEWSPAPERS (only current subscriptions are listed)
