

Here are some organizations serving in both the United States and around the world. We've invited them to campus so you can explore more opportunities this week where you can live out the Great Commission — whether you are fulfilling a cross-cultural requirement or simply fulfilling your passion. We encourage you to take time and talk with these representatives. They will be available in the cafeteria during meal hours beginning Wednesday lunch through Friday lunch.

Motivating through promotion and encouragement of year-round engagement of a "Great Commission Lifestyle" on our campus, in our community and around our world.

Equipping students to define, explore and answer theological, spiritual, social and cultural implications at the heart of living out the Great Commission.

Mobilizing Christians — individually and corporately — to help fulfill the Great Commission mandate in our generation.

GCC 2014 OFFERING

During the week we will be raising funds to go towards the work of Kentucky Refugee Ministry.

GCC 2014 GUEST SPEAKERS

DAN LEWIS

Dr. Dan Lewis spent 21 years on staff with YoungLife, and is currently Executive Director of The River Foundation. In addition, he also teaches at Asbury University, Asbury Theological Seminary, and Fuller Seminary. His real passion is to help emerging missional leaders launch effective ministries. Dan is a married father of two.

SARAH BALDWIN

Dr. Sarah Thomas Baldwin '93 has completed 10 years of leadership on the Board of Directors of Word Made Flesh, a mission community that serves the poorest of the poor. Some of her life and ministry highlights have included work in Mexico, Guatemala, Thailand, Cambodia, India, and more. Sarah has a D.Min. from George Fox Seminary and is currently Asbury University's Vice President of Student Development.

DAVID BOSCH

Dr. David Bosch, CPA is an assistant professor of business management. David worked in Iraq for almost six years, starting and operating a business; providing management consulting services to small businesses; teaching at the University of Dohuk in Iraq; and coordinating work with local government, the U.S. military, other nongovernmental organizations and U.S. headquarters.
