NOMINATIONS SOUGHT FOR
ROY L. LAUTER SERVANT LEADERSHIP AWARD

Do you know of a deserving junior who demonstrates outstanding leadership and service in the community? You can honor that person and the heart of servant leadership by submitting a nomination for the Roy L. Lauter Servant Leadership Award. The aim of this award is to promote the ideals of servant leadership in the Asbury College community, and to reward leadership in the area of community and ministry service. Only juniors with a 2.7 GPA or above are eligible for consideration. Four $1000 awards will be granted, which include a $750 award given to the recipient and an additional $250 contribution that will be made to a charitable agency at the recipient’s direction.

To qualify, nominations must be received in the Student Development Office by Friday, February 29th.

Nominated students will be asked to provide additional biographical information as part of the selection process. Candidates will not necessarily be aware of name(s) of nominators.

Please provide the following information, and type answers to the questions below on a separate sheet of paper. Return information is at the bottom of this form.
