The purpose of this bibliography is to help you locate information on history through the use of carefully selected reference sources available in the Kinlaw Library. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask a Reference Librarian for help.

INDEXES

Online in WilsonWeb OmniFile 1984 to date.

The Index provides access to English language periodical articles through author and subject entries arranged in one alphabet. In addition there is a separate listing of citations to book reviews. Included among the subject fields indexed is history.

ONLINE  Proquest Research Library: Humanities Module. 1971 to date.

The Research Library features a highly-respected, diversified mix of scholarly journals, trade publications, and magazines. This combination makes it one of the broadest and most inclusive databases. Search periodicals on subjects such as communication, history, journalism, literature, philosophy, religion, and more in this module. This subject-specific module provides access to a large number of full-text titles (over 300) in the humanities, many not found in any other database.

INDEX  Biography Index. 1946 to date.
Online in WilsonWeb 1984 to date.

The Index is a guide to biographical material appearing in periodicals and books, and includes obituaries, collections of letters, diaries, and memoirs. Following the main section of the Index, biographees are indexed according to profession and occupation.

ONLINE  Academic Search Premier. 1975 to date.

Provides full text for over 3,600 peer-reviewed scholarly publications. In addition to the full text, this database offers indexing and abstracting for over 4,500 journal titles covering the social sciences, humanities, general science, multi-cultural studies, education, and much more.

INDEX  Recently Published Articles. 1976-1990.

Provides access to periodical articles on historical subjects, arranged by geographical location and/or by chronological era. The index is compiled by the American Historical Association.
