The purpose of this bibliography is to help you locate information on education in general and on special education and instructional media in particular through the use of carefully selected reference sources available in the Kinlaw Library. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask a Reference Librarian for help.

INDEXES AND ABSTRACTS

ONLINE  \textit{ERIC}. 1967 to date.

The ERIC database provides indexing and abstracts for thousands of research reports and articles from more than 750 education and education-related journals. Links are provided to full-text articles listed in other Ebsco databases.

ONLINE \textit{PsycInfo}. 1887 to date.

Provides indexing and abstracts for over one million articles in 1,500 journals, and also includes abstracts for dissertations, books and book chapters ranging in date from 1887 to the present.

ONLINE \textit{Professional Development Collection}

Provides a highly specialized collection of over 515 full text journals, designed for professional educators.

INDEX \textit{Education Index}. 1929 to 2004.

Online in WilsonWeb OmniFile. 1984 to date.

The Index provides access to English language educational publications through author and subject entries arranged in one alphabet. In addition there is a separate listing of citations to book reviews.

ONLINE \textit{Proquest Research Library: Education Module}. 1971 to date.

The Research Library features a highly-respected, diversified mix of scholarly journals, trade publications, and magazines. This combination makes it one of the broadest and most inclusive databases. Search periodicals on subjects such as administration, policy, teaching practices, and more in this module. This subject-specific module provides access to a large number of full-text titles (over 200) in education, many not found in any other database.
INDEX

Provides abstracts from professional periodicals and reviews books related to the growth and development of children. Included are sections on “education,” “cognition, learning & perception,” and “social psychology & personality.”
