The purpose of this bibliography is to help you locate information on the Bible and theology through the use of carefully selected reference sources available in the Kinlaw Library. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask a Reference Librarian for help.

INDEXES

INDEX  Christian Periodical Index. 1956 to date.
       Online: 1979 to date.

The purpose of the Index “is to provide access to English language articles and reviews written from an evangelical Christian perspective or of interest to the evangelical community.” Over 100 publications are indexed. Citations only. No full text articles.

INDEX  Humanities Index. 1907 - 1931, 1962 to 1996.
       Online in WilsonWeb OmniFile 1984 to date.

The Index provides access to English language periodical articles through author and subject entries arranged in one alphabet. In addition there is a separate listing of citations to book reviews. Religion and theology are included among the subject fields indexed.

“The Philosopher’s Index is a subject and author index with abstracts. Philosophy books and journals in English, French, German, Spanish, and Italian are indexed, along with selected books and journals in other languages and related interdisciplinary publications.”

ONLINE  Academic Search Premier and Religion and Philosophy Collection

These databases from EbscoHost may provide the most useful access to article citations, abstracts, and full text. Religion and Philosophy Collection is a comprehensive database covering topics such as world religions, major denominations, biblical studies, religious history, and more. It contains over 300 full text journals.

ONLINE  Proquest Religion

This database from Proquest is very comprehensive and adds many sources not found in the two Ebsco databases listed above. It is an indispensable resource for students researching religious issues and perspectives. The database includes nearly 120 titles, with more than 100 available in full text. The database provides details on doctrines and philosophies, reports on religious history, and related archeology; plus it covers formal theological studies and commentary on topics of general interest from the perspectives of specific religions.

BIBLIOGRAPHIES & RESEARCH AIDS

The SBL Handbook of Style. 1999.

This is “a major...work with 2,750 articles by 1,400 recognized scholars covering all aspects of religion, past and present. It emphasizes the history of religious traditions, cross-cultural religious ideas, and the role of religion in culture.” Longer articles include useful bibliographies that will direct you to additional resources.

This source “provides a comprehensive picture of all aspects of Jewish life and knowledge up to the present day, intended for both the Jewish and non-Jewish reader.”

The International Standard Bible Encyclopedia. 4 vols. 1979-88. [ISBE]

Good to consult this first for NT information.

ASBURY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

As an Asbury College student you are eligible to use the Asbury Theological Seminary Library and you may check out materials with your College ID. The Seminary has a very large collection of books and periodicals on biblical and theological issues, and they have two subject specific periodical indexes: the ATLA Religion Database and Religious and Theological Abstracts. Once you have been entered in the Seminary system, you may log on to restricted databases with your barcode #.

ONLINE CATALOG

If you are interested in finding other materials on this subject, you may want to search the Library’s online catalog. One way to search for materials is by subject heading. To do this, double click the icon labeled “Online Catalog,” select “Subject Browse” from the drop down box, and type in your subject of interest. Here are a few possibilities:
