The purpose of this bibliography is to help you locate information on Christian ministries and missions through the use of carefully selected reference sources available in the Kinlaw Library. A significant emphasis is given to resources that provide information on the different cultures and religious traditions that one may encounter in the ministry field. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask a Reference Librarian for help.

INDEXES

INDEX  Christian Periodical Index.  Print: 1956 to 2003  Online: 1979 to date

The purpose of the Index “is to provide access to English language articles and reviews written from an evangelical Christian perspective or of interest to the evangelical community.” Over 100 publications are indexed.

Provides abstracts from professional periodicals and reviews books related to the growth and development of children. Included are sections on “education,” “cognition, learning & perception,” and “social psychology & personality.”

ONLINE  Academic Search Premier and Religion and Philosophy Collection

These databases from EbscoHost may provide the most useful access to article citations, abstracts, and full text. Religion and Philosophy Collection is a comprehensive database covering topics such as world religions, major denominations, biblical studies, religious history, and more. It contains over 300 full text journals.

ONLINE  Proquest Religion

This database from Proquest is very comprehensive and adds many sources not found in the two Ebsco databases listed above. It is an indispensable resource for students researching religious issues and perspectives. The database includes nearly 120 titles, with more than 100 available in full text. The database provides details on doctrines and philosophies, reports on religious history, and related archeology; plus it covers formal theological studies and commentary on topics of general interest from the perspectives of specific religions.

ONLINE  ERIC.  1967 to date.

The ERIC database provides indexing and abstracts for thousands of research reports and for articles from more than 750 education and education-related journals.
The Index provides access to English language educational publications through author and subject entries arranged in one alphabet. In addition there is a separate listing of citations to book reviews.
