

Asbury University Family Weekend

Oct. 1-3, 2026

Thursday, October 1

- 7 p.m. Fall Preview Check-in – Shaw Collaborative Learning Center
For families with current high school students (or potential transfer students) who registered in advance for this Admissions visit event
- 7 – 8 p.m. Wesleyan Heritage Conference: Worship Service & Holy Communion – Jameson Recital Hall
Students can receive FLEX credit for attending this worship and communion service. (Families welcome!)

Friday, October 2

- 10 a.m. Chapel – Hughes Auditorium (Speaker: Dr. Thomas McCall, Asbury Theological Seminary)
Due to seating limitations, students will remain in their assigned seats while family members sit in Balcony section G (organ side, closest to the stage)
- 1 – 3 p.m. Alumni Open House – Alumni House
- 1 – 3 p.m. Kinlaw Library Open House
Stop by these locations to learn more about the resources and programs available to Asbury students
- Center for Academic Excellence (Kinlaw Library 139)
 - Academic Accessibility Resources (Kinlaw Library 139)
 - Catalyst I - Center for Career and Calling (Kinlaw Library 215)
 - Catalyst II - Cross Cultural Engagement and Study Abroad (Kinlaw Library 204)
- 3 – 4 p.m. Coffee House Lecture: “Charles Wesley on Suffering in Discipleship/Holiness – Student Center
Students can receive FLEX credit for attending this Wesleyan Heritage Conference lecture. (Families welcome!)
- 3 – 4 p.m. Academic Department Open Houses
Meet faculty from your student’s academic department
- Dayton School of Business – Shaw 121
 - School of Christian Studies – Hughes 118 (Christian Ministries Resource Center)
 - School of Communication Arts – Miller 310
 - School of Education – Morrison 405
 - Shaw School of Sciences (includes Mathematics) – Shaw 2nd Floor Lobby
 - College of Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences – Shaw 114 SEARCH Studio
- 7:30 – 8:30 p.m. Family Weekend Band & Orchestra Concert – Jameson Recital Hall
- 7:30 p.m. Theatre Production: “Nunsense” – Greathouse Theatre, Miller Center for Communication Arts
See <https://www.onthestage.tickets/asbury-university> for more information.
- 10 p.m. WHAM (Worship Him at Midnight) – Hughes Auditorium
Students can receive FLEX credit for attending this student-led worship service. (Families welcome!)

Saturday, October 3

- 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. HICCUP Coffee Shop & Eagle Outlet Open! – Rader Student Center
- 10 a.m. Softball Intrasquad Scrimmage – Kirkland Complex
- 11 a.m. Family Weekend Ensemble Concert & Reception – Jameson Recital Hall & Choir Room
- 11 a.m. – 2 p.m. OMS International Pizza Fest – One Mission Society Student Center
Enjoy stone oven pizzas with an international flair!
- 1 p.m. Baseball vs. Alumni – Kirkland Complex
- 2 p.m. Theatre Production: “Nunsense” – Greathouse Theatre, Miller Center for Communication Arts
See <https://www.onthestage.tickets/asbury-university> for more information.
- 4 – 7 p.m. World Gospel Mission Goat Roast – WGM Student Center
A fun cultural experience including goat meat, live music and yard games
- 7:30 p.m. Theatre Production: “Nunsense” – Greathouse Theatre, Miller Center for Communication Arts
See <https://www.onthestage.tickets/asbury-university> for more information.
- 7:30 – 9:30 p.m. Aldersgate County Fair – Aldersgate Green
Enjoy traditional fair food, games, a dunk tank, line dancing, and more!

Looking for something else to do? Visit the Wilmore Arts & Crafts Festival 9 a.m. – 4 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 3 in downtown Wilmore! Stroll East Main Street and the Downtown Green and shop from over 80 vendors providing a wide variety of artwork and handcrafted items. Enjoy food trucks, live music and more! Event is held rain or shine.